The poster is divided into two main sections. The left section features a collage of images: an elderly man (likely an artist) in a red patterned shirt, a large red clay sculpture of a head, and hands working on a wooden sculpture. Overlaid on this collage is the title 'ArteOrrala' in large white letters, and below it, 'el arte como legado familiar' in white text on a dark background. Two small inset photos show the guests: Jennifer Elizabeth Orrala Plaza (labeled 'invitada') and Mario Costales Borbor (labeled 'invitado'). The right section has a solid brown background. At the top right is the word 'comunitat'. Below it is the 'Casal Català de Guayaquil' logo. The main title 'Arquitectura i Arts' is in large blue and red letters. Below that, it says 'con Gisella Zambrano'. The date and time are '2022.03.25 viernes 20:45 hora Ecuador'. Logos for the 'Generalitat de Catalunya Departament d'Acció Exterior i Govern Obert' and 'LIVE' are present. Social media icons for YouTube, Facebook, and a video call icon are shown. At the bottom right, the phone number '898 9301 0233' and the code 'aia2022' are listed.
